Dear Mr. Murr:

Congratulations on the new addition to your family! And I must agree with you that he is a cute little fellow. He is and will continue to be a great source of joy to you and your wife, although I suspect there will be times when you will be rather doubtful of it.

Harold is away just now and I do not expect him home until approximately the end of the month, so I am acknowledging your letter. The questions you ask he will answer when he gets home.

I am sure Harold joins in felicitations to the family.

Sincerely,

Lillian Weisberg
